JOHN FIELDS

The first surprise of the state republican convention was projected at the Auditorium Wednesday morning when, after B. M. Parmenter of Lawton had, in an eloquent address placed John Fields in nomination for temporary chairman, L. G. Disney, former progressive party leader and one of James Harris' chief lieutenants, seconded the nomination of Fields and moved that SLAYER OF CLANSMAN it be made unanimous.

The motion carried amid wild applause, and Chairman Arthur H. Geissler of the republican state committee named John Embry of Okla-
